

News Letter

5, NOV, 2025

Bisan holds a webinar entitled Truth and Power

Bisan Center held a webinar entitled "Truth and Power" on Saturday, October 18, 2025, which discussed the dialectic of truth and power.

The webinar included four speakers: Hasan Ladadwa, a lecturer at Birzeit University, who clarified the relationship between truth and power; Hani al-Masri, director of Masarat Center, who reviewed the Palestinian reality; Honida Ghanem, director of Madar Center, who addressed the Israeli reality; and journalist Ahmed Biqawi, who spoke about the role of media in interpreting reality.

Organizing documentation training through social media

Bisan organized a training course on short video production and documentation for social media, in October.

The training aimed to equip participants with the skills to create short videos for social media platforms, showcasing the attacks they experience by settlers and occupation forces, as well as other issues related to them and their communities.

The training covered: how to choose a video idea for social media, write scripts for short videos, and master video editing.

Bisan is proud to host Fields Medal Laureate Prof. Timothy Gowers

Bisan Center for Research and Development invites you to attend a lecture entitled "How Will Artificial Intelligence Change Mathematical Research?", which will be presented by Professor Timothy Gowers (Collège de France, University of Cambridge), on Wednesday, November 12, 2025, at 7 pm Palestine time, via Zoom.

Implementing psychological first aid training to support the resilience of people in Nablus

Bisan Center, with Women's Support Center in Nablus, conducted a training program to develop the skills of a psychological first aid team in Nablus. The training covered various topics, including psychological trauma, post-traumatic stress disorder, and recovery, in order to deal with crises effectively and quickly and enhance people's resilience.